Psalm 48

© 1956. Jerome Webster Meachen

- All:
- 1 Great is the Lord, and highly to be | praised; * |
in the city of our God is his holy | hill. ||
 - 2 Beautiful and lofty, the joy of all the earth, is the hill of | Zion, * |
the very center of the world and the city of the great | King. ||
 - 3 God is in her | citadels; * |
he is known to be her sure | refuge. ||
 - 4 Behold, the kings of the earth | assembled * | and marched forward | together. ||
 - 5 They looked and were | astounded; * |
they retreated and fled in | terror. ||
 - 6 Trembling seized them | there; * |
they writhed like a woman in childbirth, like ships of the sea when the east wind
shatters | them. ||
 - 7 As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our | God; |
God has established her for | ever. ||
 - 8 We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O | God, * |
in the midst of your | temple. ||
 - 9 Your praise, like your Name, O God, reaches to the world's | end; * |
your right hand is full of | justice. ||
 - 10 Let Mount Zion be glad and the cities of Judah | rejoice, * |
because of your | judgments. ||
 - 11 Make the circuit of Zion; walk round about | her; * |
count the number of her | towers. ||
 - 12 Consider well her bulwarks; examine her | strongholds; * |
that you may tell those who come after. | mercy; ||
 - 13 This God is our God for ever and | ever; |
he shall be our guide for | evermore. ||

Officiant: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
 People: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

We Hear God’s Word

First Lesson: 2 Samuel 5:1-5, 9-10

Please be seated

Reader: A reading from the Second Book of Samuel.

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, “Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.” So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

Canticle 18: A Song to the Lamb

(Revelation 4:11; 5:9-10, 13)

All: Splendor and honor and kingly power *
are yours by right, O Lord our God,
For you created everything that is,
and by your will they were created and have their being;
And yours by right, O Lamb that was slain, *
for with your blood you have redeemed for God,
From every family, language, people, and nation, *
a kingdom of priests to serve our God.
And so, to him who sits upon the throne,
and to Christ the Lamb,
Be worship and praise, dominion and splendor, *
for ever and for evermore.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia!

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 12:2-10

Reader: A reading from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians.

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows—was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel: Mark 6:1-13

Please remain standing as you are able.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Homily: Lance Scott

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
